

My HOME in DIJON

Deanna's advice

August 6, 2013

Dijon is an enchanting city and a perfect home base for exploring Burgandy. Thank you to Coco who really makes this feel like a home. She thinks of everything!

My suggestions would be

- Climb the tower
- Buy some fruit or vegetables (or anything!) at the market and make a picnic
- Take a tour (I did Authentica - it was great!)
- Do the Owl's Trail - it's a must for orienting you to the city
- Get out of town. I walked/ran around Lac Kir. Highly recommend!

Now Dijon is on my short list of "must-return" places! The people here are the warmest in France and Coco is no exception.

It's been a joy!

Many thanks,
